

NEW-YORKISMS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

New York, Jan. 1, 1870.

Mr. Fechter has arrived in this city and is stopping at the Westminster. For a week or two past his picture has been hanging in the lobbies at Niblo's, attracting the usual crowd of discriminating gazers. It is a sweet, mild-looking countenance, and the man who wears it would probably make a poetic and picturesque "Hamlet."

A Bawdy Blossom. Yesterday the wife of a New York theatrical manager put in an appearance in a police court looking extremely handsome and beautifully dressed. She was on application to be released on bail.

A Big Capture. Dr. Osgood, hitherto a good Unitarian of Brooklyn, has gone over to Episcopacy. He has been shifting for a long time among the loose sands of speculation, and he finally settled upon a spot where he suspects no shoals.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC. The City Amusements. At the Chesnut there will be a matinee to-day, when John Bull the Great Kibler will be performed.

At the Walnut Miss Bateman will appear this afternoon at "Pauline" in Belvoir's comedy of The Lady of Lyons, and this evening she will conclude her engagement with "Leah."

At Duprez & Benedict's Opera House a matinee to-day will be given, when The Merry Widow will be performed.

At the Eleventh Street Opera House there will be a matinee to-day, and an attractive performance this evening.
